

The North Bay Trappers are pleased to announce that Peter Anello will lead the U12A team for the upcoming season.

Peter brings a deep-rooted passion for hockey and a steadfast focus on long-term player development to the bench.

With years of coaching experience and a professional background in educational leadership, Peter utilizes a structured approach that prioritizes skill progression, accountability, and a positive competitive environment.

He is dedicated to building a hardworking, unified team where every athlete is challenged to reach their potential while fostering a lifelong love for the sport.